1985 is the year when a small company starts its business, in an area of just 400 square meters, producing the first monitors for ELECTRO VOICE; this company, through the time, thanks to its efforts, devotion and passion it has grown more and more to become a leading company in its sector, with the name of CDM.

Today it has reached a high level position in producing wooden acoustic boxes for third parties, not only for most Italian brands but also for companies in Switzerland, Germany and the United States of America. The company's main goal is provide support and quality to our customer, listening to every single request.

Thanks to a corporate strategy that has always favoured research, development, the careful selection of raw materials and the attention to detail, it manages to supply industrial products but with the quality of an handicraft product.

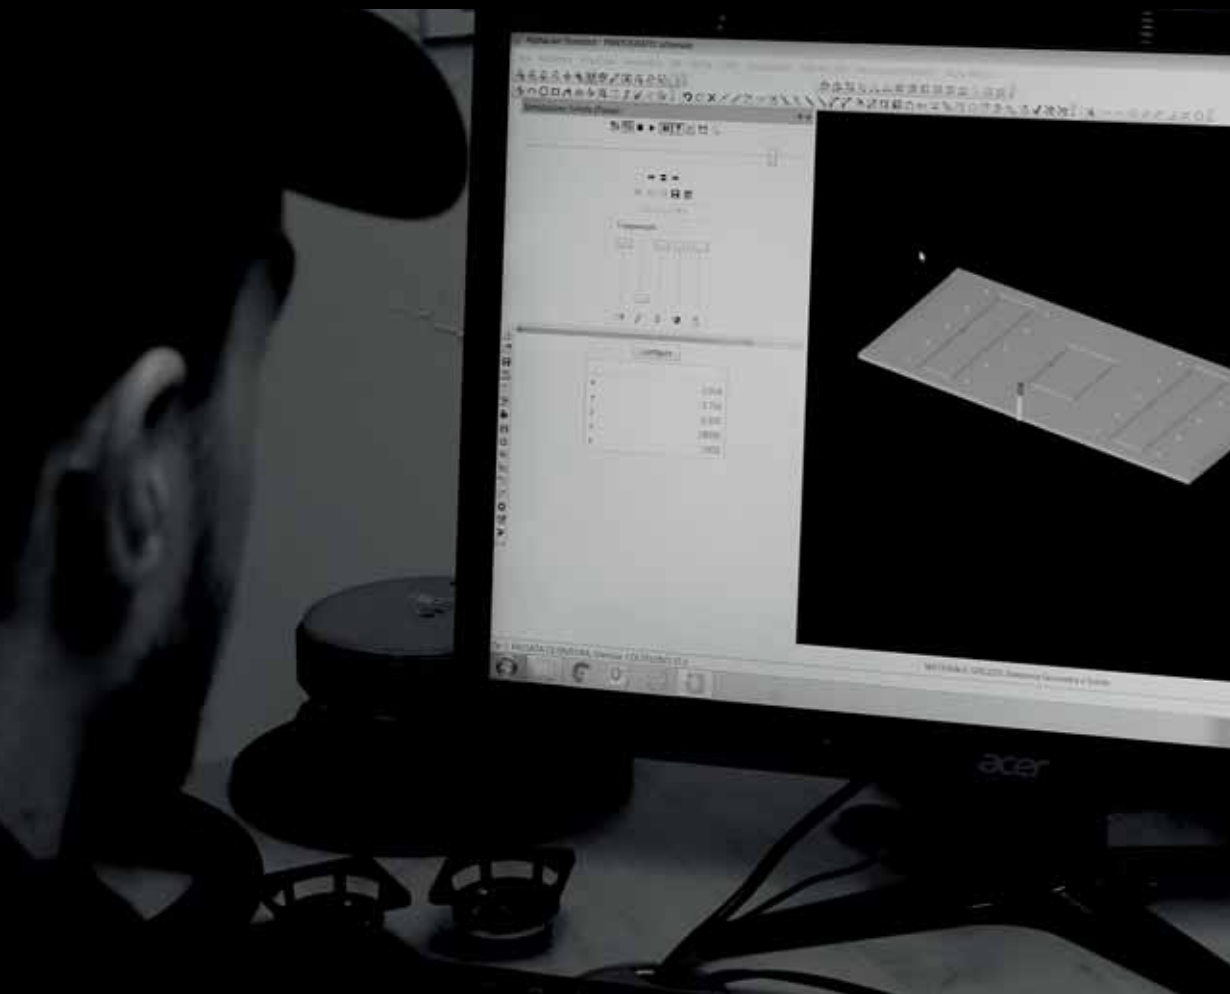

Today CDM can rely upon a production area of 3000 square meters, on the technology of advanced CNC machinery and constantly updated, on a productive staff able to manage every request professionally and on 500 square meters used only as a warehouse.

For each product the best assembly solution is studied and elaborated in order to guarantee functionality and solidity over time.

The coating process is constantly updated: until now CDM produces 3 different external finishes using 3 different types of varnishes. Specifically:

- Polyurea (Polyurea Cabinet Protection)
- Water based paint (Warnecke & Bohm)
- Solvent Resin (ICA wood varnishes)

The painting can also be customized with different grains and colors. Each product is carefully followed at every stage of the processing up to the packaging, it is made of solid and resistant materials, suitable for any type of shipment. Before being put on the market, the final product is subjected to a strict quality control.

Diego Ferri
FOUNDER

What we represent is what we want to be: this is a thought that, together with my staff, I put into practice with love, passion, effort and the continuous search for perfection, because at the heart of everything there is the client... "my client" to whom I provide all the support and quality he needs.
